The selected tenderer must maintain its tender for a further 60 days. A further period of 60 days is added to the validity period irrespective of the date of notification.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION BEFORE THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING TENDERS

The tender dossier should be clear enough to avoid candidates having to request additional information during the procedure. If the Contracting Authority, either on its own initiative or in response to a request from a tenderer, provides additional information on the tender dossier, it must send such information in writing to all the tenderers at the same time. Tenderers may submit questions in writing or by e-mail to the following address up to 5 days before the deadline for submission of tenders, specifying the publication reference and the contract title:

Liberal institute of Tirana Pashko

Address: Street “Xhanfize Keko” no.56, Tirana

E-mail: info@ilp-al.org

The Contracting Authority has no obligation to provide clarification after this date. Any tenderer seeking to arrange individual meetings with the Contracting Authority concerning this contract during the tender period may be excluded from the tender procedure. No information meeting or site visit is foreseen.

SUBMISSION OF TENDERS

Tenders must be delivered to the Contracting Authority for receipt within, date: 13.02.2025; time: 23:59. They must include the requested documents and be sent:

- by e-mail to Liberal institute of Tirana Pashko;
- Email: info@ilp-al.org

Tenders submitted by any other means will not be considered.

AMENDING OR WITHDRAWING TENDERS

Tenderers may amend or withdraw their tenders by written notification prior to the deadline for submitting tenders. Tenders may not be amended after this deadline. Any such notification of amendment or withdrawal must be prepared and submitted via e-mail.

COSTS FOR PREPARING TENDERS

No costs incurred by the tenderer in preparing and submitting the tender are reimbursable. All such costs must be borne by the tenderer.

OWNERSHIP OF TENDERS

The Contracting Authority retains ownership of all tenders received under this tendering procedure. Consequently, tenderers do not have the right to have their tenders returned to them.

EVALUATION OF TENDERS

Interviews: No interviews are foreseen.

Evaluation of technical and financial offers: Tenders exceeding the maximum budget available for the contract are unacceptable and will be eliminated.

Choice of selected tenderer: The best value for money ratio is established for this tender procedure.

Confidentiality: The entire evaluation procedure is confidential, subject to the Contracting Authority’s legislation on access to documents. The Evaluation Committee’s decisions are collective, and its deliberations are held in closed session. The members of the Evaluation Committee are bound to secrecy. The evaluation reports and written records are for official use only and may be communicated neither to the tenderers nor to any party other than the Contracting Authority.

ETHICS CLAUSES / CORRUPTIVE PRACTICES

- Any attempt by a tenderer to obtain confidential information, enter into unlawful agreements with competitors or influence the Evaluation Committee or the Contracting Authority during the process of examining, clarifying, evaluating and comparing tenders will lead to the rejection of its tender and may result in administrative penalties.
- The tenderer must not be affected by any conflict of interest and must have no equivalent relation in that respect with other tenderers or parties involved in the project.
- Tenders will be rejected or contracts terminated if it emerges that the award or execution of a contract has given rise to unusual commercial expenses. Such unusual commercial expenses are commissions not mentioned in the main contract or not stemming from a properly concluded contract referring to the main contract, commissions not paid in return for any actual and legitimate service, commissions remitted to a tax haven, commissions paid to a payee who is not clearly identified or commissions paid to a company which has every appearance of being a front company.

- The Contracting Authority reserves the right to suspend or cancel the procedure, where the award procedure proves to have been subject to substantial errors, irregularities or fraud. If substantial errors, irregularities or fraud are discovered after the award of the Contract, the Contracting Authority may refrain from concluding the Contract.

SIGNATURE OF CONTRACT(S)

Notification of award: The successful tenderer will be informed that its tender has been accepted.

Signature of the contract(s): Within 30 days of receipt of the contract already signed by the Contracting Authority, the selected tenderer shall sign and date the contract and return it to the Contracting Authority.

CANCELLATION OF THE TENDER PROCEDURE

In case of cancellation of the tender procedure, the Contracting Authority will notify tenderers about the cancellation.

Cancellation may occur, for example, where:

- the tender procedure has been unsuccessful, i.e., no suitable, qualitatively or financially acceptable tender has been received or there is no valid response at all;
- there are fundamental changes to the economic or technical data of the project;
- exceptional circumstances or force majeure render normal performance of the contract impossible;
- all technically acceptable tenders exceed the financial resources available;
- there have been substantial errors, irregularities or frauds in the procedure, in particular if they have prevented fair competition;
- the award is not in compliance with sound financial management, i.e. does not respect the principles of economy, efficiency and effectiveness (e.g. the price proposed by the tenderer to whom the contract is to be awarded is objectively disproportionate with regard to the price of the market).
